REPUBLICAN CONVENTIONS.
 CINCINNATI, Ky., April 19th.
 To the Republican Voters of the South District.
 In obedience to instructions of the District Republican Committee of the State Congressional District which met at St. Charles Hotel in Maysville on the 20th day of March, 1904, the Committee directs that a Convention of delegates representing the Republican party be held at the city of Ashland on Wednesday, May 25, 1904, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress in the South District of Kentucky for the year 1904, and to select two delegates and two Alternates to represent the District at the National Republican Convention to be held at the city of Philadelphia, on Tuesday, June 14th, 1904, for the purpose of nominating delegates to the Presidential election to be held on the 2nd day of November, 1904.
 It was ordered by the Committee that the Chairman of the Republican Executive Committee in all counties comprising the Sixth Congressional District call District mass meetings, and that mass meetings be held in the various precincts of the respective counties on Saturday, April 24th, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of selecting a Committeeman for each precinct, and the Committeemen elected on the said 24th day of April are requested to meet at their county seats on Saturday, the 25th day of April, at 10 o'clock a. m., to select the County Committee by electing a Chairman, Secretary and Treasurer, who may or may not be members of the Committee. These committees may shall hold their office for the term of four years.
 On the same day, April 25th, at 2 o'clock p. m., mass conventions will be held for the purpose of electing Delegates to the District Convention which meets at Ashland on Wednesday, May 25, 1904, at 2 o'clock p. m., for the purpose of nominating a candidate for Congress in the South District of Kentucky for the year 1904, and to select two delegates and two Alternates to represent the District at the National Republican Convention to be held at the city of Philadelphia, on Tuesday, June 14th, 1904, for the purpose of nominating delegates to the Presidential election to be held on the 2nd day of November, 1904.
 On motion the Committee adjourned to meet at Ashland May 25, 1904, at 2 o'clock p. m. J. H. HAYES, C. G. McALLISTER, Secretary.

With its usual desire to conceal the truth The Courier-Journal failed to mention the dismissal of Mr. W. L. HAZELIP, one of the gentlemen that it accused of shooting GOWELL.

The time of the Franklin County Grand Jury has been extended a week, that it may return more indictments against more unknown men who "fired the fatal shot that killed GOWELL."

It will be well to know, if the Federal Supreme Court did a neat TAYLOR, that the people of a state have no redress for the fraudulent acts of a fraudulent Legislature except a revolt to arms.

ONE of the latest as well as one of the basest lies told on Governor TAYLOR was that of The New York World, which said he had appealed to Governor ROOSEVELT to protect him from arrest by alleged Kentucky authorities.

The Lincoln Monument at Springfield, Ill., erected over the remains of the great President, was going to ruin after standing only thirty years, and is being rebuilt; but the fame of LINCOLN is immortal, and will endure forever.

CHARLES C. MOORE, the noted Lexington infidel, refuses to make an address at the proposed memorial service in honor of MAY L. COLLINS May 1st, because his friends object to his being introduced by R. C. O. BENJAMIN, a Negro. Mr. BENJAMIN's friends have not yet been heard from.

In 1861 President LINCOLN said of Kentucky—

"She is now in the hands of those who do not represent the people. The sentiment of her state officials, must be corrected. We must know what men in Kentucky have the confidence of the people."

History has doubled up on itself some more.

The Court of Appeals has decreed that this is the law in Kentucky—
 "Conceding that there had been fraud after fraud; that there had been bribery and conspiracy; that unfriendly had characterized the selection of constitutional committees in the Legislature, there is no remedy. It is a power given to the Legislature, and there is no authority to question the manner in which the power has been exercised."

DR. S. B. HARRIS, the State Senator who sold out to the Geobellites for $500, then sold out to Colonel JOHN H. WHITLEY for $5,000, and then sold back to the Geobellites for the promise of an office—which he didn't get—and whose last "lop" was an open letter splitting "Governor" BECKHAM wide open—this able abettor of Geobellism now waxes his hands of politics and will kick the Kentucky mud off his shoes and move to Texas. Texas must be all that General SHERIDAN painted it to deserve a fate such as this.

THE COMMONWEALTH.
WILL RETURN TO KENTUCKY.
 Taylor Still in Washington and Will Stay There Until After the Contest Argument.
 Washington, April 24.—W. S. Taylor, of Kentucky, who has been for several days in New York, returned to the city. His personal expectation is to remain in the city until after the disputed governorship contest is argued in the supreme court next week. Whether he will stay here until it is decided by the court, he has not yet determined. He said he has not yet planned a trip to the metropolis, and admitted that he had conferred with the republican leaders about his case. He preferred, however, not to go into the details regarding the conference or to be interviewed regarding other features of the case.
 From intimate friends of Mr. Taylor it is ascertained that he has not revealed any information regarding the indictment charging him with being an accessory to the murder of Mr. Guebel, which it was rumored, had been brought against him by the Frankfort grand jury. They say they even should the decision of the supreme court be against his right to the governorship, in his present intention to return to Kentucky, in spite of whatever proceedings may be instituted against him there.
 W. S. Hamilton, who has been with Mr. Taylor since his visit here, and who accompanied him to New York, has returned to Kentucky.
BURGARS USE DYNAMITE.
 Safe in a Store Blown in Pieces and the Building Half Weeked at Carson, Ky.

Warsaw, Ky., April 24.—Sunday night burglars visited the general merchandise store of Benjamin P. Smith, at Carson, in this county, and stole the safe to pieces with dynamite. The charge recently worked the building, blowing out one side and shattering all the glass in the windows. Parts of the iron safe were blown through the ceiling.

Mr. Smith, who resides close by, was aroused and ran to the store, to be confronted by two desperate robbers, who threatened with their pistols that he not return home. Smith ran back to get his revolver, but his wife, fearing for his personal safety, threw her arms about his neck and would not let him get out. The robbers carried off $300 out of the safe, and also took a lot of notes and other valuable papers, and made their escape.

Senator John A. Bell Dead.
 Morgantown, Ky., April 24.—State Senator John A. Bell died at his home in this city. Mr. Bell was the youngest senator in the state legislature, having just reached the constitutional age, 30 years. He was a loyal admirer of William Guebel. In returning home from Frankfort at the close of the last memorable session of the legislature he and his infant girl contracted pneumonia. His baby succumbed in a few days, but he struggled against the disease until Monday. He was a model young man and an enthusiastic democrat. His future was bright politically and otherwise, and he will be missed by this community. He was a prime favorite in this district, being popular even with his political opponents.

Expected an Acquittal.
 Harboursville, Ky., April 24.—Testimony in the Baker case closed. The defense has been strengthened considerably by evidence brought out, and many think Baker will be acquitted. Several witnesses corroborated Baker's story. It was shown by Mrs. Murray and others that White, just before dying, exonerated the Baker of any connection with the murder. Five speeches are to be made, two by the defense and three by the prosecution.

Popular Man Passes Away.
 Harboursville, Ky., April 24.—Mr. Charles W. Warrall died here at an early hour Monday morning, after a short illness of nervous prostration. Mr. Warrall was the son of City Marshal Henry Warrall, of this place, and was a young man of great popularity. He was thirty-three years old and was manager of the commonwealth grocery here. He leaves a wife and two children.

Under a Hypocrite Spell.
 Lexington, Ky., April 24.—A man who says he is under a hypnotic spell was found on the street corner here, and declares he was placed there to remain until two men called for him. He was lodged in jail, and in police court could not tell his name. He is six feet tall, weighs ten stone, brown slouch hat and overcoat of red, blue shaven and is about 30 years old.

Conspiracy Charged.
 Owensboro, Ky., April 24.—George W. Jolly died a suit charging the Owensboro Savings bank with conspiracy, formed to prevent bidding for the sale of Jolly's property by master commissioner, by which the property was sold for $5,000 less than its value.

An Unwelcome Visitor.
 Owensboro, Ky., April 24.—A Negro woman walked into Mayor Shaul's office and asked to be sent to the negro house, as she had smallpox. The mayor instructed her to walk in the middle of the street, and took her to the house himself.

Representative Hunt Dead.
 Versailles, Ky., April 24.—Hon. German B. Hunt, 44, representative from Woodford county, died Sunday morning at Georgetown, where he was taken ill last Thursday, at the funeral of his sister.

The remains of Mr. Jeremiah O'Connor were interred Sunday at Washington. Mr. O'Connor died at his home near Burtonville, aged 82. He is survived by his wife, three sons and two daughters.
 Mr. James O'Rourke of Maysville and Miss Maggie Hedrick of Helena marry today at the home of the officiating clergyman, the Rev. Father John Hickey at Millersburg. It was the groom's second marriage.

WHERE WILL IT END?

PERSECUTING TAYLOR.

Malignant Methods of the Goebelite Newspapers.

LIARS AND LIARS AND LIARS.

No Place Too Sacred For the Goels to Invade and Desecrate.

Louisville Evening Post.

For persistent, malignant and unscrupulous persecution, that of Dreyfus does not surpass the persecution of W. S. Taylor, elected Governor by the people of Kentucky last November.

The Goebel conspirators, during the campaign, paid little attention to Governor Taylor, but turned their most malicious on Governor Brown and his followers. But from the hour the polls closed attacks on Governor Taylor personally began; on the Governor himself, on his family, on his friends and his associates. No lie too malignant, no lie too mean and contemptible to be published broadcast over the state to poison the minds of the people and to reconcile them to the forcible removal of their elected Governor.

Frankfort becomes the very center of these falsehoods, and the channel of communication with the public was The Courier-Journal and Times. Mr. Taylor did not escape these slanders. All sorts of stories were invented, and miserable, pitiful spies set upon her to watch her every movement and invent conversations for her.

Wherever Mr. Taylor has gone, these children of Satan—who is the father of lies—have followed him. To his home, when he went to bury his brother and sister, to Louisville, when he came to confer with his friends; to Washington, where he went with his counsel, these miserable penny-a-liners have gone, and they have sought day by day to bring their innumerable falsehoods to bring the Governor into contempt.

There has been method in all this baseness; the purpose has been to "hang Taylor and damn the Republican party." The whole conspiracy now on convicting Taylor of conspiring to kill Goebel. That was the purpose of that $100,000 corruption fund; that was the purpose of all the stories of alleged confessions published in The Enquirer and The Courier-Journal in turn.

The Associated Press, too, has been used to compass this end. Two weeks ago the Associated Press sent out from Frankfort a palpably false statement giving what the Associated Press said was the testimony of Senator Alexander before the Grand Jury. It was fiction pure and simple, but fiction with a purpose. The Commonwealth's Attorney, Franklin, made no protest, and Judge Cantel did not threaten anyone with punishment for contempt of his Court.

The Evening Times published this false and libelous story under glaring headlines, beginning "Research for Him." It was designed to show that when Goebel was killed Taylor was waiting for the news in a very excited state of mind with a pistol in hand.

Senator Alexander denied promptly and emphatically the whole story. It was, he said, absolutely false in every detail; not simply not true, but contrary to the truth. Senator Alexander has not presumed to say to what he did testify before the Grand Jury, but he has often told his friends and his associates of what occurred on the day of the assassination. At the time of the assassination he was in the Governor's office, in conversation with Governor Taylor. The shot startled them, but Governor Taylor was no more excited than Senator Alexander, showed no evidence of the wildness attributed to him by the correspondents, and exhibited no pistol in any at time.

This plain, emphatic and complete denial was conveyed to the Associated Press, and it ordered the statement killed. The Times was informed of Senator Alexander's denial, but it failed to make even the slightest correction.

Note now the sequel. Governor Taylor was not indicted. His enemies were disappointed. Yesterday The Cincinnati Enquirer published what purported to be a dispatch from Louisville, probably written in Cincinnati. That dispatch gave in the language of the law what it said was the indictment by the Grand Jury. It gave what purported to be the vote in the Grand Jury room for and against the indictment; what purported to be the reason assigned by the two Republicans against indicting—all intended to injure Governor Taylor and aid the assassins of character in their work.

But this is not all. Another Frankfort correspondent pretends to "state" and with an air that indicates the information came from someone who imagined he knew the secrets of the prosecution—pretends to state what the prosecution expects to prove. This writer says:

"The prosecution expects to prove by Senator Alexander of Louisville that he was in Governor Taylor's office when the shot was fired; that Governor Taylor drew a revolver and ran out of the office."

The prosecution can prove nothing of the kind, for this statement is the one attributed to Senator Alexander two weeks ago by the Associated Press and by Senator Alexander emphatically denied.

It is all a part of the same plot; all a part of the scheme to ruin Taylor by any means within reach. We republished yesterday in connection with the alleged indictment of Governor Taylor the story of Mr. James Andrew Scott's visit to Winchester and his conference with Mr. Witherspoon and Judge French. We would keep all of these facts fresh in the minds of the people of Kentucky. This persecution of Governor Taylor by his enemies, but the people will yet be aroused, and it is well for all to keep the record straight.

Let two things be kept in mind: First, the testimony on which the prosecution relies to prove by Governor Taylor's action at the time of the assassination that he had a guilty knowledge of the crime, is testimony which from the nature of the case cannot be given. Second, a Grand Jury by a vote of 9 to 3 may bring an indictment when the testimony, uncontradicted, would justify a presumption of guilt, but to convict twelve men on the jury must be convinced beyond a reasonable doubt of the guilt of the accused.

Governor Taylor's vindication does not rest on these narrow grounds. The case against him has been magnified by all the devices of degraded journalism, but it has availed nothing. If an indictment has been found it will come only through much tribulation, and Governor Taylor—his enemies having exhausted all the resources of personal and political animosity—will be ready to vindicate his name before an enlightened and a generous people.
